

Perrysburg Symphony Orchestra

P IS FOR PICCOLO

Piccolos are part of the flute family and are also woodwinds. They are much smaller than flutes and have a shrill, high sound. They are often used to provide a different tone color than the standard concert flute.